

Mark 13 & 14

#39

While reading chapters 13 and 14 of Mark, jot down your observations, questions, and application points. Come to your next meeting prepared to discuss those with your group.

Place an (*) by words or phrases that are interesting to you. These can be new things you learn or general observations.

Place a (?) beside anything you have a question about. This could be a why question for God or simply something you don't fully understand.

Place an (→) beside themes that you would like to apply to your life. This could be something that has a direct implication on you or be something you feel you should do.

A few additional questions to consider:

1. Read Mark 13:2. The gospel of Mark was likely written before the other 3 gospels, in the mid to late 50's AD. What event, in AD 70, had not yet occurred?
